

Sample Name or Signature Variance Letter

Date: May 3, 2022

To: AIMG Program

Re: Name / Signature Variances in my AIMG Program supporting documents

I, Name as entered on AIMG Program 2023 Cycle online application form<sup>1</sup>, hereby affirm that all the names listed below:

1. Name variation 1 as shown on my Alberta Personal Health Card
2. Name variation 2 as shown on my Alberta Operator's Licence
3. Signature-1<sup>2</sup> variation as shown on my Permanent Resident Card
4. (repeat for as many variations as present in your supporting documentation)

are variations of my legal name/signature _____ and are one and the same person.

Signature-2<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup>This is an example of a letter that should be used by an applicant to explain minor variations in the applicant's legal name within their supporting documentation to the File Review Committee and must not be used to support legal name changes such as marriage or "change of name" orders.
